Gabungan Bertindak Malaysia Media Statement
On Himpunan Maruah Melayu and post-Bersih 4 witchhunt

In response to the recent call for assembly to be converged on the Malaysia Day on September 16 under the name of, 'Himpunan Maruah Melayu' (HMM or Rally for Malay Dignity), Gabungan Bertindak Malaysia (GBM) holds the following view:

1. GBM is all for right to dissent, without which democracy cannot exist.
2. GBM believes only in peaceful assembly as the idea of protest is to invite engagement, not to impose one's position on others by means or threats of violence.
3. GBM rejects demeaning forms of protests, whether it's photo stepping, burning of effigy or vulgar dancing. GBM sees this as bad taste which should be sanctioned by public opinion, not crimes that should be punished by law.
4. GBM asks the police to ensure no assembly intending or threatening to cause violence can be held. As the organisers of the September 16 rally is still adamant on holding it, the responsibility is now on the police to ensure public safety and order. The police must promise to investigate and move to charge anyone threatening violence under Section 506 of the Penal Code for criminal intimidation.
5. GBM urges the Police not to waste public funds to investigate and harass the participants of the Bersih 4 rally for wearing Bersih 4 yellow t-shirts and engagement in inappropriate forms of protest. The 11th hour ban of the Bersih 4 yellow t-shirts ridiculously makes the nation's independence hollow. Selective prosecution will not eliminate inappropriate forms of protest but will instead only plant more seeds of discontent and disharmony. To promote more civil forms of expression of dissent, we need dialogues to promote respect and harmony.
